An aerial photograph of a construction site in a hilly, green landscape. The site is a cleared area of brown earth with numerous tire tracks. On the left, a large rectangular structure is being built from grey concrete blocks, with a yellow crane positioned next to it. In the center, there are several large piles of these concrete blocks. To the right, a white truck is parked near more blocks. A small blue container is in the middle ground. In the foreground, a deep, rectangular excavation pit has been dug into the earth, with several workers in orange safety vests standing at its edge. The background shows more of the construction area and the surrounding green vegetation.
